VOL. XLVII. UPLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 1942. NO. 86.

Training of Air Raid Wardens Is Intensified

FILMS SHOW HOW INCENDIARY BOMBS ARE CONTROLLED

With the southland's all-out blackout still vividly in mind, Upland air raid wardens and fire watchers have been ardent in their efforts to iron out small rough spots and perfect an organization which will function instantly, effectively and smoothly without a hitch, and to that end, a meeting of captains was held in the fire house last night.

SEE BOMBING FILM

Preceding last night's meeting, however, around 200 wardens and watchers, including several from Claremont, filled the junior high school auditorium almost to capacity to see the showing of defense films depicting scenes from the bombing of London. A large portion of the film showed demonstrations of various methods of handling incendiary bombs, as well as affording a graphic idea of the menace of such bombs.

Fire watchers came away from the meeting with a better conception of the task for which they must train themselves. The film, which has been presented to the defense council by the San Bernardino Kiwanis club, can be booked for showing through the state forestry office in San Bernardino. Jack Hanson of that office will be available to show the film and give instruction at club and organization meetings throughout the county. Public demand for the film usually has it booked two weeks in advance.

STEP UP TRAINING

At the meeting of air raid captains last night, E. Tweed Stone gave thorough instruction in the work and responsibilities of wardens. No meeting of the entire air raid organization will be held this Friday evening. Instead, captains will hold meetings of their districts at various times, and Mr. Stone will attend as many of these as possible to aid in intensifying the instruction.

A very special effort is to be made to bring home to every air raid warden and fire watcher the responsibility of his job. Each must know his district thoroughly, as well as his job. Upon the wardens rests the responsibility for the protection of homes and citizens in his district from the hazards created by air attack and from enemies within.

THOROUGH KNOWLEDGE

It means he must know his sector and the people who live in it. He also must know at all times any persons in his district who need to be moved by ambulance. With about 150 wardens in Upland, there is approximately one for every block. This means that every warden is expected to know his block like a book, and be acquainted with the people who live in it like a director knows the characters in a play he is directing.

Wardens' ABC's

Air raid wardens must wear arm bands when on duty during a blackout.

First duty when a blackout alarm sounds is to see that all lights in their districts are out, and then patrol the district. They remain on duty until the all clear is sounded.

MAY USE BIKES

Wardens are not to use their cars to go to their posts. They must walk, or they may use a bicycle.

A flashlight with a bright white light must not be used, and in no case must a flashlight ever be shown so that the light is directed upward.

All persons on the streets must be stopped and identified. All people without proper authority must be kept off the streets.

ALL TRAFFIC HALTS

All cars must be stopped during an air raid alarm whether during the day or night.

An air raid warden's equipment includes arm band, heavy gloves, small first aid kit, including a tourniquet; red reflector, whistle, and a note book and pencil.

CHAFFEY BAND TO THRILL THURSDAY

Opening with the stirring Sousa march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever", Chaffey symphonic band will present the finest band benefit it ever has given in the civic auditorium Thursday, at 8 p. m. The concert was postponed because of the blackout last week. The concert will use the total resources of the stage with a cast of 140 in brilliant costumes, sound effects, and color.

Murray Owen, conducting, indicates this is one of the finest shows which he has sponsored, with a trombone section which is the best he has known, and four student conductors who will each develop an outstanding selection. Thirty-seven girls, the largest number ever in the band, take part in the program.

Student conductors include Jack Feeney, Franklin White, Clinton Reed and Max Cramer, each of whom is a soloist and musician in his own right. Feeney, concert master of the symphonic orchestra, is well known throughout the valley for his work on the violin.

Part II of the program of the evening will be given by 131 players of the Chaffey combined bands, including a group from the Upland junior high school music department. This will conclude the beautiful and dramatic pageant which has developed into one of the most spectacular pieces attempted.

AIRPORT HANGAR SALE IS DELAYED

While the Chaffey board of education has an option on the purchase of a hangar at the Ontario airport, the Ontario city council last night delayed transfer of the property.

A special meeting of the council will be held Wednesday night at which time the council is scheduled to sell the property to either the school district or to an industrial firm.

Purchase of the hangar and a classroom is contemplated by Chaffey as part of the development of the Chaffey aeronautics department.

Dr. Goslin Attends Optometrist Meeting

Dr. Homer T. Goslin, Upland optometerist, recently attended the thirty-seventh annual convention of the California State Association of Optometerists at Santa Barbara.

The Uplander was particularly interested in the graduate educational congress, a feature of the convention which provided an opportunity to learn of the new optical developments and improved methods in serving the public. Outstanding leaders in the profession discussed various improvements in equipment, technique and methods.

Presbyterian Women Will Hear Reports Seat New Officers

The making of annual reports and installation of officers will feature the meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's association to be held Thursday in the church dining hall.

Completing her term of office, Mrs. Herbert S. Bailey will preside for the last time. The morning session, opening at 11 o'clock, will be devoted to hearing the annual reports of all secretaries and committee chairmen.

The noonday luncheon will be served by Mrs. W. E. Walk's group.

In the afternoon session the Rev. Harland E. Hogue will install the recently elected officers, Mrs. Merrill H. Moremen becoming president.

The Rev. Mr. Hogue also will deliver the afternoon address.

ELIGIBLE LIST FOR RETREAD TIRES IS SAME AS FOR NEW

According to new applications received today by Upland rationing board, there has been little change in the list of those eligible to purchase tires, it is announced by R. C. Norton, chairman.

Except for the addition of ministers to the list it remains the same. However, tire applications have been increased in complexity, with 17 questions that must be answered by applicants.

Hopes of those who anticipated that new applications would make them eligible to purchase retreaded and recapped tires appear to be doomed to disappointment, it is said by Mr. Norton. Persons entitled to purchase these grades of tires or to secure recapping or retreading services, are the same as the original list of persons eligible to purchase new tires, according to the new application blanks received this morning.

MARCH QUOTA

Upland tire quota for March also received today, includes: 11 new passenger tires and 10 passenger tubes; 27 new truck tires and 12 retread truck tires and 31 truck tubes. Only retread tires in the Upland quota for this month are for trucks. No retreads for passenger cars are included.

RECENT SALES

The list of tire purchasers made public Monday morning by the Upland rationing board includes:

Passenger Tires

Dr. Mary Craig McClennan, 404 Second avenue; J. B. Draper company, 201 North First avenue.

Truck Tires

Edwin J. Sexton, Eighth and Central avenue; William L. Blanton, 1295 West Eleventh street; S. D. Allee, 709 Second avenue; two sales to the City of Upland; Oris F. Heinauer, 581 West Seventh street; Wieland & Co.

Obsolete Tires

E. C. Corzine, 313 South Sultana avenue, Upland; Guy R. Clark, 379 Euclid avenue, Upland; Gordon A. Billings, 797 Amethyst avenue, Alta Loma; Olive Warburton, 2406 North Euclid avenue, Upland; J. S. Boshart, 800 Beryl avenue, Alta Loma; Israel P. Bowers, 370 North First avenue, Upland; H. L. Gardner, Alta Loma; Frank Phillips, Wilson avenue, Upland.

POLICE CHECK ON HYPHENATED CARS

Several local youths are scheduled to visit Judge Fred H. Jacobs this week, as the result of a check made on Sunday in San Antonio Heights by officers of the California highway patrol, who were checking up on the mechanical equipment of a number of cars which had been reported by Heights residents.

The action, which netted citations against three cars, resulted because of the protests of Heights people against the use of the winding drives of the district as a testing ground for all types of unroadworthy jaloppies.

Youthful owners of the hyphenated vehicles will have to explain to Judge Jacobs why their cars had faulty mufflers and brakes dangling license plates and no horns, besides other defects to the point that they were practically not cars.

Judge Jacobs made it clear that he might take the license plates of the cars until and unless they were put in acceptable shape. "I might recommend that they jack up the carburetors and run new cars under them", he said.

Uplanders Suddenly Remember City Sandpile as Aftermath of Blackout

Upland's municipal sand pile seems to have diminished rapidly since last week's full-dress blackout when the first defensive anti-aircraft gunfire echoed from the coast across this valley, it was discovered yesterday by Fire Chief J. W. Voth.

Several weeks ago Upland firemen, aided by civilian defense auxiliary firemen, hauled a load of sand into town and deposited it in the rear of the old police station on Second avenue, where it would be convenient for citizens to secure what they might need for protection against incendiary bombs. And there the matter rested along with the sandpile.

RUN ON SAND

Then came last week's blackout, searchlights conning the sky, bright flashes of anti-aircraft shrapnel and the distant rumble of the heavy gunfire. Uplanders saw and heard and suddenly awoke to the fact that it can happen here. Friday night approximately 200 air raid wardens and fire watchers assembled at the junior high school and saw motion pictures of the bombing of London. They also saw methods of extinguishing incendiary bombs, principally of the magnesium type, against which sand is most effective.

Uplanders saw, and heeded this time, for the sandpile, which had laid in the rear of the old police station almost untouched for so many weeks, began to disappear almost over night. Yesterday it was practically levelled, with but a few buckets of sand remaining.

SAND FREE

However, the sandpile will be replenished at once, it was declared by Chief Voth. Residents may secure such sand as they need free, but must bring their own containers for it. They are reminded that it is to be used for fire protection against incendiary bombs.

For effective use, the sand must be absolutely dry, Chief Voth cautions. If it is the least bit damp, it will only defeat its object, causing an incendiary bomb fire to spread, since magnesium incendiaries thrive on the oxygen in water.. Homes should have pails of sand handy on all floors and available for instant use on roofs, he said.

MORE SAND

The city sand pile will be replenished as often as necessary, it was said by the fire chief, who indicated that similar sandpiles may be deposited in other sections of the city by the firemen should there be sufficient demand. Upland, fortunately, will not lack sand, and there is no excuse for any home to be without it, Chief Voth declared.

Hospital Leads Preparedness

Giving an example of effective preparedness for air raids, San Antonio Community hospital, taking the threat to the West Coast seriously, has for many weeks been prepared for any eventuality.

Important item in its precautionary program has been the placing of sand in containers on platforms located at key points on the roof ready for immediate use. Ladders are kept at convenient points for speedy access to the roof.

Garden hose at all times are kept attached for instant use at strategic points about the building. Other fire fighting implements and supplies are posted at important points throughout the building.

Hospital staff and personnel are organized so that every person knows what his job is to do instantly, in event of blackout or air raid. Every home and all members in it should be so organized and drilled for emergency.

Letters From England Tell About Great Deal of Civilian War Work

"We are all 'thumbs up' in England," says a letter received by Miss Margaret Stainton, 1543 West Eighth street, from a girlhood friend in Swarthmoor, Lancashire, England.

This letter, and another to Miss Stainton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Everard, of the same address, from their cousin in New Walden, Surrey, England, are filled with news of war work and bombing damages, but never a word of complaint.

In Miss Stainton's letter her friend tells of the vast amount of knitting and sewing the women are doing for their soldiers, as well as other Red Cross and canteen work.

LARGE FUNDS RAISED

Of particular interest was the writer's comments on the efforts the people of her town have made to raise money. She says:

"In addition to our work, we are busy raising funds to send to our own lads from the village. We have over 100 boys gone from our parish.

"We had a 'war weapons' week last year and raised 7,000 pounds (nearly $35,000) just in our own parish. Now we are having (if all goes well) a 'warship week' in March and we are out for 2,000 pounds. Not bad, do you think, for the size of the place!"

(Swarthmoor is a mining village of about 2,000 inhabitants a few miles from the town of Ulverston, and is often referred to also as a parish.)

The writer continues:

"We feel very proud of all the men who have come from across the water to help us. What did you think of Mr. Churchill flying around over there? We are all very proud indeed of him and think he is a grand man. We listen to Mr. Roosevelt whenever he is speaking and feel sure you must be very proud of him."

DAMAGES DESCRIBED

The letter from Mr. Everard's cousin told more of the results of the air raids, describing briefly the destruction of the home of an uncle and aunt and of the bombing of a cousin's home.

Of London she says: "Although London has been knocked about, still life goes on fairly normally." She also mentions seeing many soldiers "in U. S. A. uniforms."

Honor Society at Jaysee Picks Eight Upland Students

In recognition of their high scholastic record, Chaffey junior college students have been selected for membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma, junior college honorary scholarship society.

New members from Upland are Alan Carter, Ethel Jean Wilson, Donovan Byer, Eleanor Farmer, Barbara Gray, Jean Pehl, Miriam Settle and Alice Rose Wilson.

Membership in the society is limited to 10 per cent of the student body.

Ontario Water Co. Elects Tomorrow

Annual meeting and election of officers of the Ontario Water company is to be held tomorrow, Wednesday, afternoon at the home of E. E. Hawthorne, 904 West Eighth street, it is announced by Mr. Hawthorne, who is secretary of the company.

Present officers of the company are: V. Wade Holden, president; Jacob Teuscher, vice-president; Mr. Howthorne, secretary; J. E. Hamilton, D. L. Meredith and J. C. Baird.

"SHORT" WAR WITH JAPAN IS FORECAST AT ROTARY CLUB

Rather than being a "long war" the battle in the Pacific is likely to be a short one.

Thus spoke the affable L. K. Chang, Chinese consul in Los Angeles, at the meeting of the Upland Rotary club at noon today.

"You must remember you have been in the war for about 2½ months", continued the foreign diplomat. "We have been at war with Japan for 58 months."

Just as Japan's power was at one time underestimated, there is a tendency for some people now to over estimate the enemy's resources, Mr. Chang declared in a general discussion of the war and of the Japanese history and policy that made this war inevitable.

"The Japanese believe they have come from the heavens with a destiny to rule over Asia and finally the entire world", he said, adding that military training is the most important feature of their educational system.

One dynasty of rulers has been in control of Japan for 2,000 years and each ruler has been more war-minded and more aggressive than his predecessor, the speaker said. Mr. Chang indicated the war in the minds of the Japanese was destined to come and the war lords were only awaiting the most propitious time.

ONLY 2½ MONTHS

The Sino-Japanese battle line is virtually the same now as in 1929 and because of the Japanese inability to advance further an attack on the south Pacific was decided upon, he said. China was scheduled as the first nation to be conquered in Japan's program of conquest, he explained, but when this was not promptly realized the aggressors decided to attack elsewhere to get additional supplies for eventual use in Japan.

Even with the severance of the Burma road and the conquest of south Pacific islands, an early victory over Japan was forecast by the speaker.

Richard Ibanez, program chairman, introduced Mr. Chang. Among the club visitors was Dr. F. J. White, a former missionary in China and for many years president of Shanghai university.

PROTEST ADVANCE IN SUGAR PRICES

Consumers who find sugar prices at retail stores much more than one cent higher on a 5-pound bag than it was the first week of December, 1941, should protest to the storekeeper, it is advised by OPA Administrator Henderson. "Any increase greater than that is profiteering pure and simple," he said.

Mr. Henderson also indicates that there is no excuse for the price rise in canned goods. "Supplies of canned goods now on store shelves and in warehouses are more than adequate to meet all our food requirements until after the 1942 crops are harvested, packed and distributed to consumers," he said. "Normal supplies are available and they should be bought normally by consumers for current needs only," he declared.

W. S. Avery Sends Message to Friends For Puyallup, Wash.

A communication to The Upland News from Mrs. A. W. Sidders in Puyallup, Wash., will be of special interest to the many friends of Wm. S. Avery, until recent months the owner and operator of the Upland hotel.

In the letter Mrs. Sidders says: Father wishes to be remembered to all of you at the office and to his other friends. His condition is about the same, and he seems to be enjoying his sojourn with me and my family here in Washington. He is remarkably cheerful and speaks often of his Upland friends.

Weldon Resigns As Mayor of Ontario

Thursday Is Last Day to Register To Vote in April

This is the last call for Upland residents to register so that they may be qualified to vote in the April city election. Registration lists close on Thursday, March 5, only two more days, is the word from Walter V. Coombs, manager of the registration department in the county clerk's office.

Upland citizens may record their registrations with either Mrs. Harry Plum, Upland chamber of commerce, 130 East Ninth street, or Judge Fred H. Jacobs, 821 North Eighth avenue, who are registrars for this district. Those who may not be able to register during the daytime may do so during the evening with Judge Jacobs.

Four city offices are to be filled at the April election. These include three councilmen and the city clerk. In order to be qualified to register, persons must have resided in the state one year; in the county 90 days; in the precinct 40 days, or have been naturalized 60 days.

$75 IN FUND FOR FOOD CUSTOMER

Mrs. Frank Phillips, Wilson avenue, was given $49 last night by the Upland merchants' dividend day representative.

She had the sales slips and was all ready to receive the award.

"This just proves again that it pays to trade at home", declared Mrs. Phillips, who added, "I have always been ready to receive the money".

$75 IN GROCERY FUND

Another opportunity for residents of the district to receive $75 in cash Thursday evening is offered this week by The News in the food store advertising fund. To qualify, persons must buy at least $1 worth of food stuffs at the food stores advertising in today's Upland News. They must have at least one sales slip.

An address will be selected from The News' complete residential directory and $75 will be offered the family residing there. If that family does not have the necessary sales slip or sales slips, however, a second drawing will be held and $10 of the fund offered. Additional drawings will be conducted until the $10 is awarded.

Mrs. Blanche Connor, 167 Tenth avenue, failed to qualify for the grocery fund in the first drawing last week. Mrs. W. E. Donovan, 539 East Foothill boulevard, however, received $10 in the second drawing.

LICENSE VOLUME RISES SHARPLY

Chalking up anothed record day which surpassed all others for the number of applications handled, J. H. Pratt, state license examiner, reports 58 applicants for drivers' licenses yesterday at his office at Upland chamber of commerce. The department considers 35 applicants a capacity day for an examiner to handle.

The volume of business being handled by Mr. Pratt in Upland, with almost every week showing an increase over the preceding one, is ample proof of the value and appreciation of this service, which was returned to Upland last fall through the efforts of Upland chamber of commerce and H. M. Guy, then secretary.

Of the 58 applicants for operators' licenses, 41 passed the examination while 10 failed. Seven examinations were incomplete, and the applicants will return to complete them next Monday, Mr. Pratt said.

EXECUTIVE GIVES UP DUTIES DUE TO INCREASED WORK

George P. Weldon, mayor of Ontario, resigned last night because of the "increased municipal business and because of his health". No successor has as yet been appointed. Taylor M. Peterson is acting mayor, he being chosen by his fellow councilmen to handle the executive duties.

Mr. Weldon said today that the municipal business has been increasing so rapidly recently and "that he could not do justice to the city if he devoted the necessary time to his duties at Chaffey".

"Naturally", continued the man who has distinguished himself as an outstanding municipal executive, "my first duty is to my work at Chaffey and for that reason I felt it advisable to relinquish my council duties".

Mr. Weldon was elected in 1936 and reelected in 1940. His successor will serve until the municipal election next month.

In the resignation no reference was made to the Upland-Ontario sewage disposal question. It so happens that Mr. Weldon is the only one of the Ontario councilmen who voted to accept the joint proposal for settlement as prepared by the Upland and Ontario city managers.

Dog Poisoner Again Sneaks Into Alleys And Small Dogs Die

Because someone doesn't like little dogs, and doesn't care how much he causes them to suffer, Sally no longer is the household pet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bowman—for Sally is dead.

The red cocker spaniel died on Sunday of strychnine poisoning. Mrs. Bowman, 507 North Second avenue, took the dog into the garden with her while she looked over her vegetables and the pet ate something believed to have been a piece of meat. Within a few minutes she was in convulsions and Mr. Bowman rushed her to a veterinarian, but Sally was dead when they arrived.

The spaniel, a friendly little dog that liked to beg candy from the children, was 12½ years old and had been a member of the Bowman household since puppyhood. She never was let outside the house except on a lease.

Now, why should anyone want to kill that little dog?

There have been other poisonings recently.

Sandy MavAndy, the harmless little Scotty that had made his home with the Thos. H. Settle family, 442 North Second avenue, since 1937, was poisoned a week ago Monday. A veterinarian worked with the dog for many hours, but could not save him. Other dogs on First avenue have suffered the same fate in recent weeks.

Mrs. Cassell Ends Long Service As Wyoming President

Mrs. George Cassell, who for five years has served as president of the Wyoming state association in California, resigned this position at the Wyoming picnic which was held Sunday at Sycamore park in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Alice Richards McCreery, Long Beach, was elected to succeed Mrs. Cassell. The new Wyoming president is a daughter of a former governor of that state who, during the time of her father's term of office, from 1894-99, served as his private secretary.

Mrs. Cassell reports that the usual picnic souvenir badges were in much greater demand than usual with the 2,000 to 3,000 persons who attended the outing.

Chaffey's Outstanding Program To Be of Great Benefit to Community

"Chaffey Offers Defense Courses."
"Adults Sign Up for Shop Classes."
"Chaffey to Train Cadets."

These are only a few of the recent headlines about the major developments in the Chaffey educational program. As headlines go, they are not very startling. And the public has not become overly interested one way or another in the defense classes and in the far-reaching program of the future.

Scores and scores of men, however, have become interested; have improved themselves and their families and have become better fitted to serve in the nation's gigantic defense effort. A day is 16 hours long for the equipment in the recently erected machine shop building on the campus. Teachers work in two shifts to train the men eager to be of service and to find a place for themselves in changing conditions. Just as soon as men become qualified as machinists and capable of handling the intricate and powerful devices they are placed in jobs. New students are taken from the long list of applicants and join the classes.

What has just been said may give a hint of a little that is being done at Chaffey. But that is only a little part of the far-seeing and practical program of training men, young and not-so-young for a place in industry—for war-time and for the peace-time of the future.

A "mechanics' learner" course is just being started under the auspices of the federal government. "Students" are paid $75 a month for taking the course. On completion, they are placed in governmental work under civil service regulations. This will mean a further increase in the activities on the campus.

The most recent development is the establishment by Chaffey of a cadet training field on the desert and the purchase of property adjoining the Ontario airport. Right now embroyo aviators are on Chaffey's desert campus. They will divide their time into weekly intervals between the flying field and the Chaffey aeronautics class room. This course is also being offered under the close supervision of the federal government.

As to the equipment adjacent to the Ontario airport, this will be used by Chaffey in the actual training of aviation mechanics and all phases of the aviation industry. It is destined to become an important part of the training of men for the aviation industry of the future.

The tremendous advancements being made at Chaffey didn't just happen. The foundation for the present program was established several years ago when the aeronautics course was started. And progressive-minded Chaffey board members and the Chaffey executives have made much of every opportunity to provide facilities that will benefit the community and its residents.

What about the cost? Much of the expansion is being financed largely by funds other than money obtained directly from local taxpayers. That is, the federal government, the war department and the state department of education are solidly back of the local program—and the bulk of the money is coming from "outside" sources.

Savings of 34,000,000 pounds of rubber a year, more than can be produced by 9,000,000 rubber trees, can be reclaimed by a new machine that removes the wire beads in the rims of automobile tires, making it possible to reprocess the rubber.

Krasna Apartment Is Scene of Pleasant Evening Party

Offering their hospitality to a number of guests as a get-acquainted gesture, Mr. and Mrs. B. Krasna, who recently came to Upland from Hollywood, entertained Friday evening in their apartment at 280 North Second avenue.

An attractive color theme was employed, all decorations and table appointments being in red and white. Choice American Beauty roses graced the table at which the evening collation was served. Large white daisies and baby breath were the other blossoms used.

Much amusement was created in a drawing contest, with the first prizes being won by Mrs. Richard G. Manley and David J. Cameron. Informal visiting was enjoyed during the evening.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Krasna were Mayor and Mrs. David J. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Manley, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Mehl, Mr. and Mrs William Atchley and Mr. and Mrs. Verner H. Wilson.

Frances Paul Girls Hear Eye Witness Story of Raid

A vivid word picture of the Pearl Harbor bombing was presented members of the Frances Paul Girls class of the Presbyterian church last evening, when they heard Mrs. C. C. Gill of Honolulu and Claremont give an eye-witness account of that historical event.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Irvin Kremer, 412 Rosewood court, Ontario.

Mrs. Merrill H. Moremen, class president, conducted the routine business session and Mrs. Rex E. Lawhead presented the speaker

Mrs. Gill, with her husband, Major C. C. Gill in the Army Medical Corps, and their two small sons were living on Hickam field at the time of the air raid. Mrs. Gill told an interesting story of the family's experiences and gave a general description of the raid as she saw it—the bursting of the bombs, the columns of black smoke billowing up from the harbor, the machine gun straing of airplanes and defenseless people in the streets, and all the confusion the sudden attack caused.

The address was followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

The hostess committee included Mrs. Kremer, Mrs. Owen E. Atwood, Mrs. Eva G. Moore, Mrs. Rex E. Lawhead, Mrs. Chas. V. Benson, Mrs. Mashburn and Miss May Greenleaf.

If a woman would always write the postscript first it would save her the trouble of writing the letter.

RED CROSS DRIVE STILL FAR SHORT OF MEETING NEED

Upland Red Cross drive to raise the chapter's quota for the war emergency fund is making progress slowly, but all too slowly, declare those in charge of the drive, as it is revealed that but $4,568.97 has been raised to date, leaving $2,691.03 still to be contributed to round out Upland's quota of $7,150.

Though there are still several groups of employee organizations yet to be heard from, personal solicitations begun last week by workers are being completed speedily. It is indicated that this latter phase of the drive is not yielding the volume of returns which had been expected.

TO EXTEND DRIVE

Commenting on the progress of the drive, Mayor D. J. Cameron, chairman of the committee, indicated that there was a possibility that the committee would be called together again soon with a view to making further personal solicitations. With the drive still nearly $2,700 short of its goal, a strenuous effort will be necessary to put it over, he said.

Fifteen per cent of the fund raised is to remain in the hands of Upland chapter for local use, it is said. Every cent that can be raised is necessary in view of pressing needs for civilian defense preparedness, Red Cross officials declare, and it is asked that everyone give as generously as possible at this time, so that further calls will not be necessary in the near future.

The lecture, which will begin at 8 o'clock, may be heard by all who are interested without charge.

New Day Sergeant Is Getting Used to Daylight Gradually

There is a new face at the desk in the police department this week, with Darwin Brest the new sergeant in charge on the day shift, replacing DeVon Francisco, who went into navy service yesterday.

Sergeant Brest, who has been on the night mobile patrol for a long time, admitted the daylight was a little strong for him and that he was having a little difficulty in staying awake daytimes. Police Chief E. C. Mehl said that Officer Brest is accustoming himself to the reversal by wearing dark glasses 15 minutes out of every hour. He said it was something like a deep sea diver reaccustoming himself to surface pressure gradually.

The new dask sergeant says he expects to be able to stand full daylight in about a week or so, and anticipates that he will make a satisfactory emergence from his many months of night life.

Job Opportunities In Washington, D.C., Open to Uplanders

"Do you know stenography? Can you take dictation at the rate of 80 words a minute? If so, Uncle Sam wants you in Washington, D. C.," was the declaration made by John L. Bice, Upland secretary of the United States Board of Civil Service Examiners at the post office.

"Any man or woman who is qualified to be a stenographer can receive immediate appointment, at a starting salary of $120 a month. If you can meet the simple requirements, you can have a job in an important defense agency as soon as you arrive in Washington," Mr. Bice said.

Two stenographers from Upland are wanted as soon as possible, Mr. Bice pointed out. Anyone desiring full information about this opportunity may secure it from him at the Upland postoffice.

TWO AUTO STAMPS ARE STOLEN HERE

It is those federal auto use stamps on windshields again. Oscar G. Schicke, 1012 East Eighth street, reported to Upland police on Saturday that two had been stolen from him, one from a car and one from a truck.

To aid in preventing theft of the stamps, Police Chief E. C. Mehl suggests that car owners write their names on the stamps as well as their motor or license plate numbers, using indelible pencil or pen and ink. This will both retard theft and aid in recovery of the stamps.

In addition to sticking the stamps to the windshield in the usual manner, a coat of clear varnish over the stamps will aid in preventing their removel, Chief Mehl said.

ONE BUS ALLOTED TO GRID PLAYERS

One bus has been alloted the Chaffey athletic program by the Chaffey board of education.

At its meeting yesterday, the Chaffey officials decided to make available a bus for use of the athletes in traveling to meet the scheduled games.

"When the tires on that bus are worn out there can be no more traveling", explained Board Clerk Don E. Palmer.

As the result of the curtailed athletic program, the Chaffey athletic department has been asked to prepare an intra-mural program.

LIGHTWEIGHTS IN BATTLE TONIGHT

Rocky Modrigna, Los Angeles, and Manuel Rosales, Bryn Mawr, two snappy lightweights who have come to the front with a rush in the last couple of months, will square off in the main event at Ontario legion stadium tonight in a bout that promises action from start to finish.

They are a pair of gamesters and the outcome appears a toss-up. Modirgna is a swift puncher and fast on his feet, but faces a tough assignment against the Bryn Mawr light tank. Rosales never stops boring in and is at his best at close quarters.

BANK WITH YOUR COUNTRY is the theme of this effective Defense Savings poster now seen in store windows and in the lobbies of buildings all over the country. Drawn by artist Henry Billings, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., the poster portrays the spirit of patriotism by investing in the United States Government through the purchase of Defense Bonds and Stamps. Stamps are priced from 10 cents to $5; Bonds from $18.75 to $10,000.

CALIFORNIA WILL HAVE GAS MASKS

Gas masks and other defense equipment will be allocated to California cities and counties on a loan basis, and a state property officer will be appointed to handle this material, it is explained by Governor Culbert L. Olson.

Governor Olson said further: "Each city must show preparedness to receive, warehouse and properly distribute this material as a condition of obtaining it. California's initial allocation will exceed five million gas masks. Possibly as many as a million will come out of stocks now on hand; the rest as fast as they can be manufactured."

Part of the equipment to be furnished is: Gas masks, sufficient for entire population; surgical equipment, enough for one team per 5,000 population; stretchers, 4 per 5,000; cots, 12 per 5,000; identification tags, 1 book of 20 tags per 1,000; arm bands, 60 per 1,000; gas proof capes, 30 per 1,000; steel helmets.

Mrs. Howard Graves Writes of Defense Work in Mendocino

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graves, formerly well known residents of Upland, but for the past number of years living on their fruit ranch near Mendocino in northern California, still are mindful of their many friends here and are actively interested in civilian defense work, it is revealed in a letter received from them.

The letter follows:

Mendocino, Calif.,
Jan. 30, 1942

To The Editor:

Enclosing check for the 1942 subscription to The Upland News (my home paper).

It's like living in two places to get your paper twice a week and to learn of all the activities going on in Upland, where I spent so many pleasant years, and to know that you folks are "all out" for defense.

While this is a small community up here, still we are all on the alert at our observation posts 24 hours a day.

Our post is on the high school hill overlooking the ocean and less than a half a mile from the shore—a wonderful view of the surrounding country and the broad Pacific. I have been on duty since Dec. 7—the fatal day at Pearl Harbor. The women take the day shifts of two hours each and the men the night shifts. Everything runs like clock work.

Our first aid school ended yesterday with 22 of us completing the course, and we just completed the work of the board of human resources tonight, signing up our citizens and finger-printing all so that in case af disaster here on the coast we will have some sort of identification.

Our part of the country has had about 30 inches of rain to date.

Our women are not unmindful of the work our soldiers are doing here at the camp for our protection, and each Sunday morning our women's organizations, the Ladies Aid, Eastern Star, Woman's club, Rebekahs and Altar society, take turns in seeing that the soldiers are provided with lovely cakes, which is greatly appreciated by the soldiers.

Hoping for victory for all of us in the future, and with our best wishes to you and to all our Upland friends, will say "All out for defense"' "buy bonds" and "keep them flying".

Information on Defense Effort Is Available at Upland Library

From the office of the President of the United States to every library in the country there comes a wealth of new pamphlet material relating to a good many items of vital interest to every American. The following is a list of recent pamphlets received at Upland public library:

The regulation "New Soldier's Handbook", which includes the official U. S. Army manual, is the exact book given every new member of the forces. An interesting pamphlet on "Our Flag" has been issued by the Marine corps, and in it the reader finds pointers on displaying the national banner. "Ships for Freedom" is from the office of production management, and outlines the need for men who are wanted to build ships for defense.

DEFENSE TRAINING

"Defense Employment and Training for Employment" also gives pointers for vocational guidance. The United States Citizens Defense corps has outlined the information as to who can join, with a list of qualifications, schools available, description of insignia and equipment for this all-important service.

The treasury department has issued information on the activities of the United States Coast Guard. "New Ships for the Merchant Marine" gives a description, with principal characteristics, of the types of ships being built in the construction program of the United States Maritime commission. A guide for the training of volunteer nurses' aides has been prepared by the American Red Cross.

WASTE CONSERVATION

The office for emergency management has issued a leaflet entitled "War Against Waste". A report to the nation on American preparation for war has been filed by the office of facts and figures under the leadership of Archibald MacLeish. This "Report to the Nation" gives information as to the progress of the defense effort "insofar as information can be published without giving aid and comfort to those who are not our friends."

American life after the close of the present conflict is not neglected for "After the War—Full Employment" and "After Defense—What—" outline plans for the post-war era.

"Deak" Francisco Is Given Sendoff By Fellow Workers

Fellow workers of the city police and fire departments and city employees over the week end staged official farewells for De-Von (Deak) Francisco, who left on Monday morning to enter service with the United States navy.

Fire department members and those of the police force who were not on duty assembled at the firemen's cabin on Saturday evening, honoring Deak at a send-off dinner. From the fire department he received a handsome gold service ring, while city employees and police presented him with a gold identification certificate.

Only an estimated half dozen pairs of kite birds remain in England.

WILL YOU HELP US SAVE
RUBBER FOR UNCLE SAM?

A special announcement by your Gas Company regarding war-time service calls to homes

THE war-time shortage of tires has made it necessary to change the routine handling of gas service calls. Possibly these changes will not affect or inconvenience you at all. But in the interests of conservation—your call for service must now be combined with others in your district for efficient daily routing. This will help to prevent duplications of trips when one trip can cover an entire neighborhood and save rubber.

For those who are moving we will try to complete "turn-on" orders the day following receipt of the order, unless some later date is requested. "Turn-off" orders may require a few days longer. Adjustments on your gas appliances or other calls on your Gas Company for service will also require more time. Only emergencies of the most urgent nature can be taken care of on the same day received.

In addition the following cooperation will be appreciated:

1. Please do not request an appointment with the service man for a definite time of day (so that your call may be grouped with others).
2. Please do not ask for any service work to be done at your home after 5 P.M., or on Sundays and holidays.

You can rest assured that your call will be cared for as soon as possible under these war-time conditions. And, of course, your Gas Company looks forward to the day when it can resume the prompt service to which you have become accustomed.
